

Awards

The UIA and the Chamber of Architects of Turkey (CAT) had started a campaign with the purpose of bringing the number of awards to a record level to match the record interest shown by students from all over the world for the competition - "EXTREME". And finally, 26 awards were declared by several individuals, institutions and firms:

- UNESCO Grand Prize (7 000$)
- Japan Institute of Architects (JIA) Prize (5 000$)
- Assembly of Turkish Exporters Prize (TİM) (3 000$)
- Conseil International des Architectes Français (CIAF) Prize (1 000 €)
- Technical Chamber of Greece Prize (1 000 €)
- Hong Kong Institute of Architects Prize (1 000$)
- Singapore Institute of Architects Prize (1 000$)
- Chamber of Architects of Turkey Prize (1 000$)
- Chamber of Architects of Turkey Prize (1 000$)
- Chamber of Architects of Turkey Prize (1 000$)
- Architects' Association 1927 (Turkey) Prize (1 000$)
- UIA 2005 Istanbul President of the Congress Prize (1 000$)
- UIA 2005 Istanbul Organization Committee Prize (1 000$)
- UIA 2005 Istanbul Scientific Committee Prize (1 000$)
- Wolf Tochtermann Prize (1 000$)
- Louise Cox Prize (1 000$)
- Koksal Anadol Prize (1 000$)
- Architect Ismet Barutçu Prize (1000$)
- Turner Pro^ge Prize (1000$)
- Union of Architects of Russia (UAR) Prize (An all expenses covered 10 day trip to Moscow and St. Petersburg, including a two-way air ticket to Russia)
- Architectural Society of China (ASC) Prize (Accommodation and local transportation for a 6 day Beijing Study Tour in November 2006 and participation in the 12th Architecture Congress of Asia)
- Borusan Prize ("SINAN: An Architectural Genius / Doğan Kuban – Ahmet Ertuğ" 3 copies)
- FGA Mimarlık and Aluplan Bilgisayar Prize (Allplan Architectural CAD System 2 copies)